It will be observed from the foregoing note (page 3) that the wet lands belonging to the Share of Puttanna, one of the recipients of the loan, had been at the time of granting the loan hypothecated to one Siddi Gowda of Lakkipur for Rs 1000/-. This deed was not been cleared, and Siddi Gowda has filed a suit against the sons of Puttanna, who is now dead, for the recovery of the amount, which together with interest remaining due come to Rs 1395/-. In the suit, the Dy Coms of Hassan has been also made a defendant, as the whole property has been mortgaged to Government.

The Dy Coms reports that out of the loan of Rs 1500/- Sanctioned, a sum of Rs 600/- had been advanced to the parties, that the present valuation of the village is Rs 650/-/-/- & that this value may be realized, if the village be sold as a whole. The village was estimated at Rs 3,610, at the time of applying for the loan. The Dy Coms had recommended the grant on the security of the said village. It appears that if the village is to be sold
